The Benefits of a Career in Public Accounting at Kemper CPA Group

1 You are in control.

You own your career, and you have the power to shape your own future. From day one at Kemper CPA Group, you'll be exposed to the firm's full range of divisions and services. As you gain experience, you can choose to pursue your interests and passions, becoming a recognized expert in your chosen field. You can climb the ladder of career growth, or take a leap and grow laterally.

With Kemper's unique landscape of small and mid-size offices, you can undoubtedly make a difference in the firm. You can help shape the direction of your office and face the very real possibility of moving into an ownership position with the firm.

2 Be part of the team.

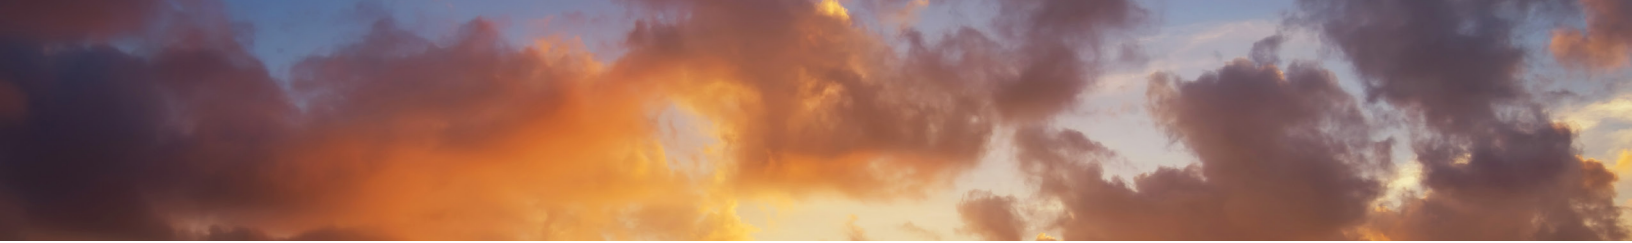

Collaboration is a great part of the public accounting profession. At Kemper CPA Group, we believe in fostering a culture of teamwork, collaboration, and shared learning. As a member of the Kemper team, you work closely with experienced professionals with a variety of skill sets, insights, and ideas, and you are valued for what you bring to the table, too.

Along with daily interactions with your team, you have ample opportunities to connect with other professionals through our industry affiliations. Our memberships in the AICPA, State CPA societies, Upstream Academy, and Boomer Circles afford you opportunities to tap into a wealth of knowledge and resources and openly share ideas with the best and brightest in the industry.

3 Find personal and professional fulfillment.

Over time, observing the positive impact you have on your clients can be a source of personal fulfillment and professional satisfaction. When you see that your work is making a difference for your clients, you may feel more motivated to continue to grow professionally and find innovative ways to help your clients achieve their goals. This self-actualization leads to greater success in your career, as well as a sense of pride and accomplishment in your work.

The firm recognizes the value in every team member and strives to provide training and professional development opportunities that allow each team member to reach their highest potential. Kemper CPA Group seeks to find ways to help you find fulfillment in your daily work and provides ongoing support for the longevity of your career.

4 Impact your community.

As a professional, you'll be connected with other business leaders in your community. You can leverage your credibility as an accountant to build valuable professional relationships that will be beneficial to you as your career progresses. The relationships you build, along with the caliber of your work, will help you establish yourself as a respected member of the community you serve.

The relationships you build with clients are mutually beneficial. While you're helping them succeed, you'll learn valuable new skills along the way. You can have a major effect on your community through the impact you have in helping your clients reach their highest potential.

5 Enjoy varied opportunities.

You have the opportunity to see different areas of practice, from auditing to tax preparation and consulting, which allows you to develop diverse technical skills. And with the evolving nature of the public accounting industry, there will always be something new you can learn without making a career change.

In addition to developing a variety of technical skills, you'll hone important success skills such as communication, time management, and problem solving.

As an added bonus, you can work in a variety of industries that spark your interest without having to be directly employed by that industry. This diversity allows you to expand your knowledge base and apply your skills in different contexts, making each project a new and exciting challenge.

6 Always take the high road.

Accountants are committed to upholding high ethical and professional standards, promoting transparency and accountability. Integrity is one of our firm's core values, and professionalism is a non-negotiable in the profession. You can be confident that you will never be asked to do anything illegal, immoral, or unethical.

7 Flexibility

Our professionals have a high degree of autonomy and flexibility. As you progress in your career, you can choose to work on a variety of projects that spark your interest. You also have flexibility in your schedule for family or personal commitments.

8 Stability

Public accounting firms are generally stable and profitable businesses, which can provide you with job security even during economic downturns. Our firm has been providing fulfilling careers for professionals since 1958.

9 Financial Rewards

The firm rewards our professionals with competitive salaries and the potential for growth as your career progresses. You have the long-term ability to make a great living and receive significant financial rewards. Individuals identified for our partner-track program may move into an ownership role.

Other financial perks include performance bonuses, profit sharing, CPA Exam reimbursement, and referral bonuses.

10 Respect

The CPA designation is widely recognized as a mark of excellence in the accounting profession. Accountants and CPAs are respected for their expertise in accounting, tax, and financial reporting, and we are viewed as trusted advisors by our clients.
